TO SUCCEED GRESHAM

Richard Olney Offered the Position by the President.

HE IMMEDIATELY ACCEPTED IT.

His Successor as Attorney General Has Not Yet Been Selected—Edwin F. Uhl Will Continue in Office as Assistant Secretary of State—A Conference at the White House.

NEW YORK, June 4.—A special to a local paper from Washington says: The Hon. Richard Olney of Massachusetts, the present attorney general of the United States, will be the successor of the late Hon. Walter Q. Gresham in the office of the secretary of state. The Hon. Edwin F. Uhl of Michigan will continue in the office of assistant secretary of state. It has not yet been determined who will be chosen to fill the vacancy on the attorney generalship created by the transfer of Mr. Olney to the state department.

There has been much speculation in Washington as to Mr. Gresham's successor. The death of the late secretary was unexpected, and it is doubtful if Mr. Cleveland even permitted himself to think of a possible successor. When the reality of General Gresham's death came upon the president he was stunned. Then followed the hasty transfer of the body to Chicago, the funeral ceremonies, by which Mr. Cleveland was deeply affected; the hurried return through torrid heat to Washington, where the party arrived late Friday afternoon.

It was not until last night that executive consideration was given to the subject of filling the vacancy. Secretaries Carlisle and Lamont were invited to the White House after the president's arrival there from Woodley. There is good reason to believe that the president conferred with the two secretaries named upon the subject of the succession in the state department. After the retirement of these officials to their respective departments it is known that Attorney General Olney was summoned to the executive mansion, and it is almost certain that the office of secretary of state was tendered and accepted by Mr. Olney.

WHOLE FAMILY INSANE.

Spiritualism Causes Seven People to Be Taken Into Custody.

CLEVELAND, June 4.—An entire family of seven were taken into custody yesterday charged with insanity. The family consists of Henry Buchwald, the father; Charlotte Buchwald, his wife, and two grown daughters, Eva and Emma, and three small children. All of the members of the family are strong believers in the spiritualistic faith and have been locked in their home at 3 Beaver street for over a week holding wildly insane spiritualistic seances.

One of the daughters is laboring under the hallucination that she is a spirit and another member of the family that the spirit must die. The spirit was perfectly willing to be sacrificed, but the arrival of the sheriff's officers prevented them from carrying out their insane ideas.

KENTUCKY MYSTERY.

The Dead Body of a Young Girl Found in the Woods.

LOUISVILLE, June 4.—Thomas Simpson, from High Grove, Spencer county, reports that the dead body of Miss Mollie Shirley was found in Asa Overall's woods in a sitting position. One of her limbs was fearfully swollen and greatly discolored where the teeth of a vicious dog had penetrated it a few days ago.

The last time Miss Shirley was seen alive she was leaving her father's home to go to a stack to get straw to fill a bed tick, and what happened to her afterwards is not known. The children of the vicinity turned out to search the fields and woods, and when they were going through Overall's timber land, only 400 yards from her father's house, they found her body as above stated.

Crisis in Spain.

MADRID, June 4.—The chamber yesterday, by a majority of 78 votes, adopted a motion censuring the government. The ministerial party refused to take part in the division. All the ministers quitted the house before the vote was taken. The cabinet declines to resign because the ministers claim they accepted office on Senor Sagasta's promise that the opposition would support them in passing the budget. The situation is critical, and the Republicans appear determined to overthrow the government.

English Fiasco.

BALTIMORE, June 4.—The long heralded 10-round fight between Joe Choiniski of California and Jack Cattannach of Providence proved to be the greatest pugilistic fiasco ever presented to the Baltimore public. The first round demonstrated the fact that Cattannach was simply an "easy mark" for Choiniski and the crowd yelled "Take them off." The second round was but a repetition of the first, a light tap on Cattannach's neck ending the contest.

WHY NO ARRESTS?

Horrible Outrage Alleged to Have Been Perpetrated in Southern Michigan.

ELKHART, Ind., June 4.—The details of a horrible and revolting crime have just reached here. A family by the name of Serby resides 12 miles north of this city, just across the state line. They had in their charge a little girl aged 7 years, and the orphaned daughter of Serby's sister.

A few nights ago the child was assaulted and outraged in a terrible manner by Serby, who then beat the little one into insensibility. Serby and his wife then carried the body of the child to a deep ravine about a mile north of their home and threw her into the pit to perish. The fiends then returned to their home.

During the night, however, the child regained consciousness and managed to crawl out of the ravine to the road, dragging herself from there, a distance of 40 rods, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Wheat, where she was found early next morning by the farmer. He picked the little one up and carried her into the house, when her awful condition was discovered. Her little body was so terribly swollen and bruised that it was necessary to cut the clothing away.

As soon as she had received medical attention, she recovered consciousness and gave the details of the terrible affair. The outrage has caused intense excitement. Serby was the child's uncle. Neither Serby nor his wife have been apprehended. Two physicians are attending the child, who state that her recovery is doubtful.

MYSTERY DEEPENS.

Miss Nellie Harrington's Murderer Still Unknown to San Francisco Police.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Three days which have elapsed since the mangled body of Miss Nellie Harrington was found in her flat have deepened rather than cleared the mystery connected with her murder. Some further light has been thrown upon the business investments of the dead woman which have furnished an incentive for crime, but the knowledge has aided the police but little.

The unfortunate accident to ex-Senator L. W. Buck, who was thrown from a carriage while on his way to the office of the chief of police, has still further complicated matters. Buck was an intimate friend of Miss Harrington, whom he had known for 20 years, and the police hoped that his knowledge of her affairs might supply a clue to the murderer. Since the accident Buck has been unconscious.

Still Another Mysterious Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—The police have another murder to unravel. At daylight yesterday morning James Howard, a Wells-Fargo & Company employee, rushed into a branch street police station covered with blood. His skull had been fractured and he was unable to utter a few words about having been beaten and robbed. He was removed to the receiving hospital, dying in about two hours.

AN INSANE MAN'S DEED.

The Captain General of Madrid Shot and Mortally Wounded.

MADRID, June 4.—At 11 o'clock yesterday morning Major William Clavajo, an infantry officer, walked into the office of General Primarevia, captain general of Madrid, whom he saluted. As he dropped his hand after touching his cap Captain Clavajo drew a revolver and without a moment's warning, fired two shots at the general, both of which took effect in his chest.

General Primarevia fell to the floor mortally wounded, and his assassin attempted to fire again, but General Aymerich, who was present, struck the assassin down with his saber, and, summoning the guards, had him taken to prison. It is believed that Clavajo is insane. A court-martial is now sitting in the case, and it is probable that Lieutenant Clavajo will be sentenced to be shot within 48 hours.

Whipped Her Slanderer.

WHEELING, June 4.—A Charleston special says that it came to the ears of Mrs. Ella Moran of that city that Bernard Conley, a neighbor, had circulated a story that reflected on her reputation for virtue. Last night she and her husband, Otis, and her brother, Joseph Henson, called Conley out of his house. He was tied to a fence where he was laid partly across a rail. His shirt was stripped from him and while the two men held Conley Mrs. Moran laid a cowhide across his bare back until the blood came. The assailants are under arrest, but they have the sympathies of the community.

The Seal Skin Squabbie.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 4.—Admiral Stephenson has decided that it will be necessary for prosecution in admiralty to be brought against the sealer Shelby, arrested by the cutter Corwin in order to formally vindicate the schooner because of Britain's refusal to renew the agreement for the sealing of arins during the closed season. This course is recognized as necessary to enable the Shelby to claim damages from the American government through the British home office. The seal skins seized with the schooner were surrendered by the admiralty unconditionally to Captain Clausen.

Washed Upon the Sand.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 4.—The body of Miss Regina Gobel of Philadelphia, who was drowned on Sunday afternoon, was washed upon the sand a mile below where the accident occurred yesterday. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental death by drowning. Charles Crawford, the young man who was with Miss Gobel just before she sank, was released.

VICTIMS OF THE HEAT

Deaths and Prostrations Reported From Many Places.

ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS BROKEN.

In New York City Alone at Least Twenty-Five People Have Died and 150 Prostrated—Chicago Is the Next City to Suffer From the Heat—The Hot Wave Interrupted at Several Places.

NEW YORK, June 4.—A cool easterly breeze sprang up shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and it is hoped put an end to hot weather for a season at least. For five days the mercury ranged from 70 to 85 degrees above zero and sweltering humanity have longed in vain for a breath of fresh air. Ambulances have been busy attending to persons who have been overheated.

Not only have the records been broken for the 30th and 31st of May and the 1st, 2d and 3d of June, but a much more important record has been smashed. This is a grand total of five record-breaking days in succession. Never before in the history of the local weather department has anything of this nature occurred before. It is safe to say that at least 25 people have died during the past five days as the result of the heated term, and that over 150 have been prostrated and taken to the different hospitals of the city. A good many of those taken to the different public institutions will not recover.

The nearest to yesterday's heat was June 3, 1884, when the thermometer registered 86. The death list yesterday is one of the longest on record. Ten people were carried off the streets dead and 11 more are in a precarious condition.

The following is a list of the deaths for the day: John Smith, laborer; Loretta Johnson, 4 months old; William Kelly, laborer; George Fredericks, 6 months of age; Freda Kroshin, 2 years old; Louise Bavelle, 11 months old; Garbolly, 14 months old; Anthony Copeland, 3 years old; Katherine Garling, laundress, and Thomas Lance, laborer.

CHICAGO NOT MUCH BEHIND.

Three People Dead and a Number of Others Not Expected to Recover.

CHICAGO, June 4.—Yesterday was the fifth day of intense heat which has oppressed Chicago, the mercury being 90 in the shade during the afternoon. A lake breeze which sprang up during the afternoon made matters more endurable for a time, but the breeze wandered off and then the sun had his own way without interruption. The number of prostrations was larger than on any previous day.

The following people were overcome, the first three of them dying: M. Fellen, found on drainage canal at Sag bridge, died soon after; James Griffin, dropped dead in front of 2959 Dearborn street; John Johnson, dropped dead in front of 3100 La Salle street.

Those in a serious condition are: Max Lampe, overcome in First National bank; Frank Gannon; Lee Bradbury; Dell Gannon, 12 years of age, and Mrs. W. A. Parl.

At Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 4.—Yesterday at 3 o'clock and at 4, the weather bureau thermometer registered 100 degrees and at 5 o'clock it stood at 99. For 25 years observations have been taken in this city by a government official, yet the reports show that only once in that time has it been hotter. On one July day several years ago, the thermometer registered 101 degrees.

This section has not had rain for several weeks and unless it comes soon the crops will be utterly blighted. Notwithstanding the fact that a great deal of street work is being done, very few heat prostrations were reported, none of them fatal.

Seven Deaths in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—Seven deaths was yesterday's addition to the heated term's fatalities. There were nearly 50 prostrations, about one-third of which number was made up of policemen and firemen, who held their annual parade yesterday, marching under the boiling sun for several hours. The fatal cases were principally infants and old persons. The maximum temperature was 99 at 6 p. m. About 7 p. m. a heavy thunderstorm came up, and the enervated population experienced a little relief with the temperature at 78.

At Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, June 4.—The temperature yesterday, while slightly below that of Sunday, caused much suffering. Several prostrations were reported, and among the number was Mr. David E. Christian, an attorney. Mr. Christian was overcome while crossing the Superior street viaduct. He was unconscious for several hours, and for a time it was believed he would not survive. Later, however, he recovered, and was removed to his home. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the mercury indicated 89.

At Springfield, Ills.

SPRINGFIELD, June 4.—The torrid weather continued, yesterday being the hottest day. The government thermometer registered 95 degrees, while the thermometers on the street registered as high as 100 degrees. There were some prostrations from the heat, but none fatal so far. Toward evening heavy clouds came up, and it was hoped rain would fall, but this hope was soon dissipated. A heavy rain was reported east of here.

Detroit the Hottest Place in Michigan.

DETROIT, June 4.—Detroit was the hottest place in Michigan yesterday according to official observers. At 3 o'clock the mercury was 96.4, being 1.3 degrees warmer than on Sunday and the hottest June weather ever known to the signal service department. No prostrations were reported, however. The weather officers are not now by any means sure as to when the promised rainstorm will materialize.

Hot in Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The energies of the sun were taxed in caring for the thousands of those who suffered from the heat yesterday. A member of the fire department among those who succumbed to the heat. The thermometer at the weather bureau reached a maximum of 85 degrees, the highest recorded during the present hot spell.

Two Prostrations in Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, June 4.—The maximum temperature reached here by the thermometer yesterday was 100.1 at the signal service office. This was registered about 2 o'clock. This breaks the season's record by 3 degrees. Relief is promised in the shape of thunderstorms. There have been two prostrations so far, one of which is serious.

Storm Raging.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., June 4.—The thermometer yesterday was 103 in the shade, one of the hottest days ever known, exceeding all past records for this time of year. A furious storm is now raging. There were numerous prostrations and much suffering.

Heavy Snow in Colorado.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., June 4.—It was showing nearly all day in the Cripple Creek district, but last night the weather cleared, although the sidewalks and streets are covered with snow.

Long Drought Broken.

PANA, Ills., June 4.—The long drought here was broken yesterday evening by a heavy rain and windstorm. The government thermometer registered 102 in the shade just before the storm.

Drop in Temperature at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, June 4.—At noon 95 was reached yesterday but in the next hour there was a drop of 9 degrees and the afternoon was more endurable.

FREIGHT TRAIN HE'D UP.

Several Hundred Dollars Worth of Goods Stolen and Carted Away.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 4.—Freight train No. 11 on the Lake Shore railroad was held up Sunday night between here and Mishawaka. The train was a through merchandise train. When about half way between here and the suburb the engineer was compelled at the point of a revolver to stop. Two persons watched him and the fireman until the rest of the gang ran through the valuable merchandise cars.

Several cars were broken into and the stolen goods loaded into wagons, brought there by other members of the gang. In the meantime the train officers in the caboose, started to ascertain the cause of delay, but did not get far before they were ordered to surrender. The gang succeeded in removing several hundred dollars worth of goods. The train was then allowed to depart.

At an early hour yesterday morning Detective Frank Brobst brought five local characters to the city securely handcuffed together. It took him some time to explain how it happened that he was here just at the right time. Brobst says he was in a boxcar with some tramps, he being in the guise of a tramp (working on some case) when the train was held up. He was an eyewitness to nearly all of the proceedings. He followed the wagons for about six miles, when they finally drove into a dense swamp.

Brobst followed on and in a short time the party arrived at their rendezvous, an old log house in the swamps. He captured the five without any trouble, and using one of their teams, brought them to town. Brobst says he thinks there are about 20 in the gang and that they are all home people. The goods were brought in yesterday. Some new captures are expected soon.

SURE TO GET THE RIGHT ONE.

A Father and Three Sons Sent to Prison For Murdering One Man.

WHEELING, June 4.—Henry N. Huggings was convicted in the West Virginia circuit court of murder in the second degree for participating in the murder of Friend Garner, July 20 last. This makes the fourth member of the Huggings family convicted of complicity in the same crime, his father, Harrison Huggings, and his two brothers, George and William, being already under sentence of five years each.

The murder created a great sensation by the reason of the prominence of the parties. Garner, the man killed, being the son of the wealthiest farmer in the county. The murder occurred during a night between Garner and the four Huggings, growing out of a dispute over the right of the latter to pasture some horses in one of Garner's fields. Garner was beaten to death in the fracas, but the difficulty was to prove which of the four struck the fatal blow. The father and three sons will be taken to the penitentiary at once.

Damage From a Tidal Wave.

LIMA, Peru, June 4.—A tidal wave has occurred on the Northern Pacific coast of Peru and the cable between Callao and Arica is broken. Much damage has occurred at Mollendo, which is also a cable station, and which is the terminus of a railway at Arequipa and Puno, and has an elegant railway station. Other seaports are also reported as having sustained much damage from the tidal wave.

A FEW MORE KILLED

Little Skirmishes Occur Every Day in Cuba.

INSURGENTS ALWAYS DEFEATED.

This Is According to the Reports by Wire From Havana Which Are All Sent Under the Censorship of the Cuban Government—Passengers by Steamer Have an Entirely Different Story to Tell.

HAVANA, June 4.—Lieutenant Colonel Tejera has had a brush with the insurgents on the banks of the Contramaestre river in the province of Santiago de Cuba. One soldier was killed.

The column of troops under command of Colonel Sanloval has also exchanged shots with the insurgents, who lost two killed and left one man wounded upon the field. On the side of the troops one guide and two soldiers were wounded. The insurgent band commanded by Suarez in the province of Puerto Principe, being fired upon by a detachment of troops, left upon the field two killed and three wounded. In addition the troops captured 14 saddled horses.

Colonel Matzelle, operating against the insurgents with a detachment of troops, came across a band of insurgents consisting of 50 infantry and 10 cavalry in the district of Joberosado. He pursued the enemy to the Leborracl mountain in the province of Santa Clara, the insurgents leaving three dead behind them. The troops also captured a quantity of arms and 10 horses, one of which was killed.

The insurgents have succeeded in burning the Bonisto, which was in course of construction at Moron, a short distance north of Santiago de Cuba.

Lieutenant Colonel Tejera has taken prisoner a lieutenant of the insurgents, who declares that the latter are despirited since the death of Jose Marti. He confirms the report that Maximo Gomez is wounded, as are Bellito and Lora also.

The troops were fired upon by insurgents between Victorin de Las Lunas and Puerto de Padre, but the attack was repulsed, the resulting loss to the rebels being two wounded and two prisoners. Macao's band of insurgents has burned a plantation in Guantanamo belonging to the heirs of Buena.

ENTIRELY DIFFERENT STORY.

Passengers by Steamer Say the Insurgents' Cause Is Gaining.

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—Tidings of the insurrection in Cuba are brought to this port by the arrival at Port Richmond yesterday of the British steamship Massasoit, Captain Murray, from Doaquiri, 12 1-2 miles from St. Jago. The officers say that the insurgents are rapidly advancing their cause by the repeated defeats of the Spanish soldiers, who are coming in daily contact with them in the mountains which form the background of the town of St. Jago.

Great doubt exists among the insurgents of General Marti's death. When the Massasoit arrived at St. Jago, which is the port of entry of Doaquiri, the Spanish authorities sent on board a corps of marines under a lieutenant and the ship was thoroughly searched for goods contraband of war, before permission was given her to depart from her loading berth, which portion of the island was thickly populated by insurgents.

When the vessel left for Doaquiri, a number of soldiers were sent on board for the purpose of protecting the ship and her crew from the rebels. This was on May 23, and in a couple of hours the harbor was reached. Shortly after leaving St. Jago, a Spanish man-of-war was sighted, and she passed close enough for the Massasoit people to learn that she had General Campos on board. She followed the Massasoit in to Doaquiri, and into her were disembarked the Spanish soldiers.

The sympathies of the people all around Doaquiri are with the insurgents and a number of the stevedores that were working aboard the ship when she arrived, left before she was loaded and joined the rebel forces.

Captain Murray, during the time the vessel was loading at Doaquiri, lived up in the mountains with the mine superintendent, but was not molested at all by the insurgents.

The report that the steamship Bridge-ton, which sailed from Philadelphia some days ago for Cayenne, is bound for Cuba with arms for the insurgents, is ridiculous. Pilot C. H. Long, who took her down the Delaware, said there was nothing whatever on board the ship but coal.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 4.—Gonzales de Quesada, secretary of the Cuban revolutionists, arrived here yesterday. He received a telegram from Benjamin Guerra, treasurer of the revolutionists, at New York, as follows: "Panchito Gomez cables that Marti lives. All passengers from Santiago, including Portuondo's wife, believe him alive. I believe it so, and have telegraphed to all. Cheer up."

Panchito Gomez is a son of General Gomez, leader of the insurrectionists in Cuba, and is now in San Domingo. Portuondo, who is mentioned, is Marti's private secretary. Quesada does not believe that Marti is dead, and has never believed it. "If he is dead," he says, "then he has been assassinated, as he would not have been on the field of battle. He is the civil leader, and there are enough generals to lead the fighting without his doing so. However, even if he were dead, it would make no difference to the cause. It would go on just the same because it is a fight, not of men, but of principles."

Thunderstorms: cooler weather.

The Mansfield (O.) Shield thinks it nonsensical for Democrats to get into a wrangle over the silver question, while the Republicans will have Congress for two years to come and will dispose of the silver question to suit themselves. And the Shield is right.

CONGRESSMAN KYLE, of Mississippi, has written a strong letter against the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1. He takes the position that this would run all the gold from the country, and result in contraction instead of expansion. Up to now he has been elated as unreservedly with the silver champions, and his conversion is a blow to the craze in that section.

THE RECITAL A SUCCESS.

A Cultured and Appreciative Audience at Hayswood Seminary Last Evening.

The recital by Miss Anna Britten, assisted by Misses Raines, Moore, Gault and Robinson, was given Monday evening in the chapel at Hayswood to a cultured and appreciative audience.

The first number on the program, a duo by Gurlitt, was well rendered by Miss Britten, ably accompanied by Miss Jessie Raines at the second piano.

The second two numbers, a study by Foote and a waltz by Gobbarts, were played with an appreciation of the rhythm and a touch susceptible of both strong and delicate shades. The prelude by Bach was rendered with a steady, firm touch, and the theme throughout was well sustained.

In the vocal duo, "Beautiful Moonlight," Misses Robinson and Gault displayed natural sweetness and sympathetic quality of voice.

In the fourth number Miss Britten showed her skill in bringing out the different and conflicting themes in the op. 14, No. 1 sonata, by Beethoven, said to have been suggested by a quarrel between a man and his wife. No. 6, the Strauss-Tausig waltz, bristles with technical difficulties, varied tempers and requires versatility of interpretation. Miss Britten proved herself equal to the task in spite of the warm evening and treacherous keys.

The last number, a beautiful concerto in E flat by Mozart, was rendered by Miss Moore at the first piano, well accompanied by Miss Britten at the second piano.

Miss Britten was attired in a simple but artistic gown of white silk, lace and ribbon and was the recipient of a number of beautiful bouquets. Altogether, Miss Britten, her teacher and friends are to be congratulated upon the success of her recital.

MINERAL SPRINGS NEAR MAYSICK.

Wonderful Curative Qualities Claimed for the Water—People Going to It in Crowds.

Recent developments have caused the people living in Mayslick and vicinity to believe that the water of a spring three miles south of there, near Peeds P. O., possesses wonderful curative qualities, and hundreds, whites and blacks, are carrying the water away in jugs, buckets and other vessels.

It is said fully three hundred people were at the spring last Sunday, and the roads were lined with parties yesterday bound for it.

The spring is a small one, the water gushing out of a blue clay bank on the road side. The peculiar taste of the water first led to the belief that it contained some minerals.

A man living at Mayslick who was very low with consumption or some other disease a few months ago was induced to try the water. He is now in the enjoyment of fine health, and has gained forty or fifty pounds.

A lady living at Johnson Junction who who thought to be at the point of death, with consumption, a few weeks ago, began using the water and is now going about and recovering fast.

The spring is on a small farm lately bought by Hon. A. P. Gooding, and he took some of the water to Lexington today to have it analyzed, in order to settle the question as to its qualities.

Some people living in the neighborhood don't believe the water contains any minerals at all. They attribute the alleged cures simply to the faith of the patients.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Regular June Term—Juries Empaneled—The Free Turnpike Case. Other Business.

The June term of the Mason Circuit Court convened yesterday, Judge Harbeson presiding.

The Sheriff and his deputies took the required oath in regard to summoning jurors.

Circuit Clerk Woodward presented his report of taxes &c., received on law process from February 4th to June 3rd. The net amount was $64.39.

Silas Robinson, (foreman) Bais Berry, William Hutchins, John Roe, Henry Burke, J. W. Prather, Thomas Collins, Edward Tamme, O. G. Layton, Patrick Tierney, Geo. Gibson and W. N. Howe were empaneled and sworn as a grand jury.

Master Commissioner Kehoe and A. D. Cole, late Master Commissioner, produced their financial reports, which were ordered filed. Mr. Kehoe has $5,990.40 in his hands at present and Mr. Cole, $6,589.31.

County Clerk Cochran presented his report of taxes &c., received on deeds, mortgages, licenses &c., from February 1st to June 1st, which was ordered filed. The total amounted to $2,060.

In the case of Charles B. Pearce against J. C. Jefferson, &c., the "free turnpike" case, the plaintiff produced his amended petition No. 2. Defendants objected to the filing of same but the court overruled the objection and ordered it filed. Defendants then moved that the said amended petition be stricken from the record. The plaintiff objected to this, but the objection was overruled and the amended petition was stricken out.

The amended petition states that at the April term of the Fiscal Court the owner of all the stock of the Hill City and the Jersey Ridge turnpike roads surrendered to said court "the right to use, occupy, repair and control each of said turnpike as public roads of Mason County, and thereupon said Fiscal Court accepted said surrender and took charge of each of said pikes and did not, as inadvertently pleaded in the petition, purchase said pikes, but each thereby became and is now a part of the public road system of the county." The plaintiff concludes with the statement that the 20 cents levied by said court for "free turnpikes" was levied in part for maintaining said roads so surrendered.

Oligo-nunk, Sunday, June 9th.

The Lincoln Division, Knights of Pythias, of Cincinnati, will have a select excursion to Oligo-nunk Sunday, June 9th. New Richmond and Maysville will be the only stations at which this train will stop for passengers between Cincinnati and the caves. Train will leave Maysville at 10 a. m. Round trip fare including admission to the caves, $1.50. Every arrangement has been made this season at Oligo-nunk for the comfort of the patrons,—fine pavilion, good restaurant, popular prices. A day spent at these beautiful caves will prove most enjoyable as well as instructive. Grand scenery along the twenty miles of the Kinniconnick Branch.

Death of Mrs. Julia Ensor.

Mrs. Julia Albert Ensor, formerly of this city, died May 24th at her home in Parkeville, Parke County, Indiana, of diphtheria, complicated with other diseases. Deceased was born in 1840 in this county and was united in marriage in 1859 to William Ensor. She leaves eight children. She was a cousin of Mr. I. M. Lane, and has many warm friends in this city and county who will regret to learn of her death. Deceased was a devout Christian, whose exemplary character won her the respect and esteem of all who knew her.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

THE CUT-WORM.

What the U. S. Department of Agriculture Says of These Pesky Pests.

Some days ago Messrs. C. P. Dieterich & Bro., the florists and nurserymen, sent to the U. S. Department of Agriculture some specimens of the worms that have been doing such damage to the growing crops in this section. The following is the reply:

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
DIVISION OF ENTOMOLOGY,
WASHINGTON CITY, June 1, 1895.

C. P. Dieterich & Bro., Maysville, Ky.—Gentlemen: Your letter of May 28th addressed to Professor B. T. Galloway has been referred to this office for attention. The specimens you send are, as you state, cut-worms, of a common species known scientifically as Pettia (Agrotis) herilis. Usually this species, like other cut-worms, feeds only at night, but when they have multiplied excessively, they may travel and feed by day as well. The best remedy, as for other cut-worms, is to place about, in the infested fields, branches of fresh clover or other succulent vegetation, poisoned with Paris green. The worms are attracted to this poisoned bait, and their numbers will be largely reduced if the remedy is persistently used. Where the worms attack clover fields in large numbers it will pay to poison a strip of the clover in advance of their march by sprinkling it with Paris green in water.

Yours truly,
L. O. HOWARD, Entomologist.

The damage wrought by these worms is very great in portions of this county. Some farmers have had three plantings of corn cut down, and are planting the fourth time.

Melon vines have also suffered. One grower in Charleston Bottom took ten worms out of one hill last Saturday. This hot weather, however, ought to put an end to the worms this season.

THE WHEELMEN.

A Big Crowd of 'Em Coming to the State Meet Next Week.

It Promises to Be the Greatest Cycling Convention Ever Held in Kentucky—Program.

In its wheel notes Saturday the Covington Post says: "All roads and routes now lead to Maysville, and on June 14 and 15 will occur the greatest cycling meet ever held in Kentucky. T. C. Walden, of Owensboro, writes that the western part of the State will be well represented and expects to take some of the championships. Cynthiaana will have racing talent present and Covington will be represented by Harry M. Gidwell and Cliff Rugby (Croulenger). It is the intention of these racers to spend a week on the track previous to the meet and become thoroughly acquainted with it."

The Lexington Leader says: "The Lexington delegation of wheelmen to the State meet at Maysville this year will leave from in front of the opera house at 11 on the morning of June 13. They will wheel by the way of Paris, taking dinner in that city and arriving in Maysville at 5 o'clock that evening. About seventy-five wheelmen will go from here."

Reports from all sections point to a large attendance. Five hundred wheelmen are expected. With this number on hand the races will be hotly contested. The annual parade will occur on the first day of the meeting. The procession will be formed in front of the club rooms, and the wheelmen will then move west on Third to Wall, north of Wall to Second, west on Second to Schultz; countermarch on Second to Market, south on Market to Third, east on Third to Bridge, north on Bridge to Second, east on Second to Union, and turn back on Second to club rooms. This, however, is subject to change.

The hill climbing contest will occur at 8:30 a. m. on the second day, and will be followed by "a yankee lunch and picnic" at the top of the hill. The races will all occur at the fair grounds.

Following is the program:

DROWNED IN THE OHIO.

A Stranger Hailing From Pittsburg Finds a Watery Grave Just Below Maysville.

A man whose name is unknown found a watery grave in the Ohio a short distance below this city yesterday afternoon. Just when he reached Maysville is not known, but he came here in a skiff that has the name "Jessie R. P." painted on it in one or two places. The skiff contained some nets and other fishing tackle.

Sometime Monday morning he fell in with Joe Bode, John Geis, Kirk Gilbert and Bill Setters and the party finally concluded to take a keg of beer and spend the day in the willows on the Ohio shore, below Aberdeen. At noon Setters says he saw the rest were getting gloriously drunk and he left.

About 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Geis, Gilbert and the stranger got in the skiff and started for the Kentucky shore, leaving Bode in the willows. On the way to this side, the boat was swamped by the waves of the Wells or Bonanza, and the stranger was drowned. Geis and Gilbert succeeded in reaching shore after a hard struggle, the former saving the latter.

Such is the account the survivors tell of the accident. Geis says he was so drunk he didn't know what steamer it was that swamped the skiff.

The unfortunate unknown stated during the day that he was from Pittsburg, but afterwards said he was from Portsmouth. His body had not been recovered at last accounts.

There were some ugly reports this morning concerning the case. It is said that Mr. W. J. Neal and son and a neighbor living just below Pogue's distillery saw some parties throw a man out of a skiff and heard him begging for his life. Constable Dawson is at work on the case, and it is hoped the investigation will show there in no truth in these reports.

REV. W. P. FIFE.

The Successful Evangelist Conducts Services in This City Last Night and This Morning.

Evangelist W. P. Fife came down from Manchester yesterday afternoon and conducted the services at the M. E. Church, South, last night. After an earnest talk in which he related some of his experiences since his meeting in Maysville, he called upon the audience to testify as to their religious experiences. A number spoke bearing witness to the continued influence and benefits of the great revival. It was evident, however, that some had grown cold.

Mr. Fife decided to remain here to-day and preach this morning on the subject of "Pentecost."

It is possible that he will be present and assist in the evening service but he feels too tired to preach. He is the guest of Mayor Cox.

The revival at Manchester proved very successful, and a large crowd crossed the river last evening and accompanied the evangelist to the C. and O. depot.

FOURTEENTH international Christian Endeavor convention, to be held at Boston, July 10-15, promises to be one of the greatest conventions ever held in the world. On the program a prominent speaker is Rev. E. L. Powell, formerly of this city. There will be two immense tents, which will be erected on the famous Boston commons.

THERE are fifty-five hands employed in the Higginsport saw mills.
